CATALOGUE SALE OF RARE & TRADITIONAL IN LAMB EWES ON BEHALF OF THE DERBYSHIRE GRITSTONE SHEEP SOCIETY, LONK SHEEP BREEDERS ASSOCIATION AND RARE BREED SURVIVAL TRUST

SATURDAY 16TH FEBRUARY 2019

The Inaugural Sale took place at Clitheroe Auction Mart on Saturday 16th February with a super trade from start to finish.

The Derbyshire Gritstones were up first with trade peaking at 420gns for a dark-faced shearling Ewe from the Eggleton High Moor Flock scanned twins. The Ewe was bought by young breeder Alice Hayton. Next best price was from the Scrivin Family with a Ewe in lamb to the Yorkshire Show Champion, which raced away to 400 gns bought by Mr Driver.

Lonk Ewes peaked at 480gns for a 2 crop Ewe scanned twins from the Whitwell Family selling to the Kempson Brothers. Other highlights followed from the same pen a Shearling and 1 crop Ewe selling for 400gns to Clive Mitchell and Mr Alpe respectively.

The Rare Breeds also had highlights with Hebrideans selling to 75 guineas and Woodland up to 150gns.

Auctioneer Jeremy Greenhalgh commented "Overall a successful Sale with an almost perfect clearance rate. A massive thank you for the support of both buyers and sellers. I look forward to 2020 for the next Sale. A brilliant day all round"
