

PURE BRED POULTRY & WATERFOWL SALE
SATURDAY 3rd AUGUST 2019

Trade for all stock was much better than anticipated given August is usually the quietest of the year. It was trio of white Silkie Bantams that topped the prices making £320. A splendid Pair of African Geese caught the eye, these sold for £170. All large fowl pullets, whether it be Rhode Island Reds, Light Sussex, Buff Sussex or Marans, averaged £20-£30 per head which was extremely good for the time of year. Waterfowl sold well especially well with pairs of Call Ducks selling up to £110.

Close to 250 lots in the deadstock section; lots included small cabins, carrying crates, incubators and poultry drinkers and accessories. Top price of the day in the poultry deadstock section was 120 Egg Incubator making £50. Hatching eggs topped at £16 for 10 Maran Bantam eggs.

Poultry Auctioneer Jeremy Greenhalgh said “Lots of variety with many good quality trios selling for premium prices, especially soft feather large averaging over £25 per head throughout.”
